UNLEASHYOURCHAMPION™

At GAMMA we believe there is a champion inside of all of us, whether you're already a power player or just getting started.

That's why for over four decades, GAMMA Sports has set the bar when it comes to performance innovation.

We offer the best tennis strings and grips in the industry, along with racquets, accessories and a full line of high performance training, court, and stringing equipment.

Our patented processes, superior design & technology give players a distinct edge over the competition.

Because we know there's no feeling like winning a match!

"We're so confident that
GAMMA Ocho will outperform
the competition - we guarantee it!"

- Matt Ferrari PRESIDENT & CEO

INTRODUCING THE ULTIMATE
GAME CHANGER™

GAMMA® OCHO™

The first of its kind – New GAMMA OCHO, gives every player a taste of professional level performance, with 8 edges that bite the ball for greater spin, control & power.

GAMMA OCHO is the only line of strings in the industry to offer these performance benefits across all string types.

Whether you play with solid core, multifilament or polyester strings today, New GAMMA OCHO is guaranteed to change your game!

STRING SELECTOR

GAMMA continues to set the bar when it comes to performance innovation. We offer the best tennis strings in the industry.

To help recommend the GAMMA string best suited for the specific needs of a player, GAMMA has developed the following String Selector Chart that matches the three most common playing styles with the four most desired performance benefits that players want from their strings.

A convenient interactive version of the GAMMA String Selection Chart is also available at gammاسports.com.

GAMMA's Exclusive String Processing

Tennis manufacturers focus on materials and construction when developing strings. At GAMMA we take this a step further with our exclusive and proprietary processing technologies, to create strings with unmatched performance characteristics.

TNT2 Technology

TNT2 Technology provides the greatest combination of power, feel and control offered in a premium solid core tennis string. Our second generation Thermo Nuclear Technology process increases the dynamic elasticity of the strings resulting in greater string bed deflection to cushion the impact, cup the ball and store more of the impact energy in the strings.

Live Wire Technology

Live Wire Technology provides the greatest combination of resiliency and touch offered in a premium multifilament tennis string. Live Wire Technology combines advanced multifilament constructions with GAMMA's exclusive irradiation processing to cross link the molecules of the material and create Live Wire microfibers that maximize the resiliency of the strings for more energy return to the ball and greater touch.

GAMMA Irradiation Technology

GAMMA's original patented irradiation process uses high energy GAMMA irradiation to increase the number of intermolecular bonds in the material to maximize the dynamic resiliency and strength of the string.

Polyester Monofilament Technology

High energy co-polyester materials are manufactured with a proprietary, multi-stage drawing process to increase strength and minimize tension loss for maximum durability and longer play life.
